Welcome to Breathe and Blooms Affirmation Toolkit. I am delighted to bring you a collection of my favourite Positive Affirmations based around the seven Chakras.

Many of us nowadays, are open to the idea that we create and attract our reality through our thoughts, mindset and resilience.

Research shows that by strategically altering our mindset to one of gratitude and positivity, we open both our heart and mind up to receiving blessings in many forms throughout our life.

HOW TO USE THE AFFIRMATIONS

The Affirmations are written for boosting the energy of each individual Chakra as well as producing a positive mindset.

If you are unfamiliar with Chakras, you will find a brief description of each one above the Positive Affirmations.

Simply select the Affirmation that resonates with you (your intuition and higher-self will guide you to the one you most need), and repeat this out loud or to yourself, as many times as you require each day.

When you feel you are ready to move on, select another Affirmation (this may be for a different Chakra or the one you have practiced previously, again, allow your higher-self to guide you).
